

About the project

LINK-Inc project aims to increase the participation of migrants and ethnic minorities in Work-Based Learning by equipping VET and In-company teachers and mentors with innovative approaches to address cultural diversity. The purpose is to equip VET professionals with the adequate skills and tools to support young migrants and ethnic minorities in their allocation to training places. Furthermore, to prevent possible situations of discrimination in WBL by helping In-company teachers, trainers and mentors to acquire competencies and tools to manage cultural diversity in apprenticeships programmes.

The main project results are a state of the art report on cultural and ethnic integration in Work-based Learning, an ECVET based Training Curriculum, a Handbook and Toolbox containing new approaches and practical tools to apply and manage diversity in WBL, and the LINK-Inc Open Online Center.
